The Eleventh Indiana Cavalry Regiment was received yesterday in the usual form---by dinner at the Soldiers'Home and addresses at the State House grove. The speakers vesterday were General Mausfield, Dr Ezra B Reed, Col. Bob. Stewart, the old commander of the regiment, Colonel Sharron, Major Crowder and Chaplain Barnhart.

Mosquitoes they bite bard everywhere! We don't mind them, our hide is thick and tough, but we pity the delicate females subjected to the long bills of these musical blood suckers. THIS HAIR DYR is manufactured by a peculiar precess, which renders it infinitely superior to any dye in market. Being complete in one bottle, no preparation is required, which greatly simplifies the application. IN USING THIS DYE you avoid that RUSTY, DEAD ADpearance by which dyed hair and whiskers are so readily recognized, when an inferior article has been used, as it produces a perfectly natural color of any shade that is desired, from a rich brown to a jetty, lustrous black, miles northwest of Indianapolis, on Crawfordville that will not smut, crock, or stain the clothing. Invest 75 cents and you will be convinced. Sold by all Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.
